“Joy” ~ Rend Collective

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Host :: Father God, we are reminded of those timeless words that “the whole of humankind is to drink joy from the fountain of joy.” (C.S. Lewis)

Family :: “(Our) lips shout for joy, when (we) sing praises to you; (our) souls also, which you have redeemed. (Psalm 71:23)

Host :: As the one in whom all joy is found, it is crazy that we would seek life and joy outside of you. For “in you is life! Splendor and majesty are before you; strength and joy are in your place” (John 1:4; 1 Chronicles 16:27)

Family :: Forgive us Father for believing and behaving as if there’s a joy that does not include enjoying and being enjoyed by you. Put more joy in (our) hearts than (we could) have when grain and wine abound. (Psalm 4:7)

Moment of Silent Prayer

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

Isaiah 35:10

And the ransomed (and redeemed) of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

MESSAGE

Series :: That You Believe: Publicity: John 1:19-4:54

Message :: John 2:1-11 :: “A Sign”

[1] On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. [2] Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. [3] When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” [4] And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come.” [5] His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” [6] Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. [7] Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. [8] And he said to them, “Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast.” So they took it. [9] When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom [10] and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now.” [11] This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.
