SENDING

John 1:14, 12

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth...But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.

OPENING DECLARATION

Psalm 8:4-9

What is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet...O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Host :: Father God, it is truly astounding that you would not only be mindful of us, but actually be for us!

Family :: You “show your love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:8)

Host :: Despite our best thoughts about ourselves, we do not deserve your love. And despite our best deeds in ourselves, we could never earn your love.

Family :: So help us to recognize and receive you for who you are: “the Word who became flesh...the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.” (John 1:14)

Moment of Silent Prayer

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

John 1:16-17

For from (Jesus’) fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; (but) grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Today :: John 1:6-18 :: “What’s It Gonna Take?”

[6] There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. [7] He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. [8] He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. [9] The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. [10] He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. [11] He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. [12] But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, [13] who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. [14] And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. [15] (John bore witness about him, and cried out, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’”) [16] For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. [17] For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. [18] No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.
