OPENING DECLARATION

Exodus 15:1a, 2, 11

"I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously... The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him... Who is like you, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders?"

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Host :: Father God, as great as you are, we must acknowledge that when we gather here every week, we come full of baggage - hardships experienced throughout the week, thoughts that continue to plague us, mis-deeds, mis-steps and mistakes that haunt us.

Family :: "Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved." (Psalm 55:22)

Host :: The simple fact is that you are a God who invites us to "come to (you), all who labor and are heavy laden, and (you) will give (us) rest. (We) take (your) yoke upon (us), and learn from (you), for (you are) gentle and lowly in heart." (Matthew 11:28-29)

Family :: By your sacrifice you have reconciled us to yourself and sent us to be "ministers of reconciliation" to those around us. (2 Corinthians 5:18)

Family :: Help us trust and rest in you, as we help others do the same. For "this is the work of God that (we) believe in him whom he has sent." (John 6:29)

MESSAGE

2 Corinthians 5:11-21 :: "Church Can Be SIMPLE"

[11] Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. [12] We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. [13] For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. [14] For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; [15] and he died for all, that those who live no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. [16] From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. [17] Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. [18] All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; [19] that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. [20] Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. [21] For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.
