OPENING DECLARATION

1 Samuel 12:22

For the LORD will not forsake his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Host :: Heavenly Father, we are astounded that you have revealed to us “things into which even the angels long to look.” That is, “the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories.” (1 Peter 1:11-12)

Family :: Truly, the gospel, is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes. (Romans 1:16)

Host :: And yet, despite the fact that “what can be known about (You) is plain to (us), because (You) has shown it to (us),” we nevertheless “suppress the truth by our unrighteousness.” (Romans 1:18-19)

Family :: Forgive us Father, for thinking that we ever “get beyond” the Gospel! Forgive us for believing the Gospel to only be what we need to enter the kingdom rather than how we make all progress in life. Forgive us for not understanding that the Gospel is the solution to each problem, the key to each closed door.

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

Isaiah 1:18; 43:25

Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. I, I am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins.

MESSAGE

2 Corinthians 5:11-21 :: “Church Can Be ____ PASSIONATE”

[11] Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. [12] We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. [13] For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. [14] For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; [15] and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. [16] From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. [17] Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. [18] All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; [19] that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. [20] Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. [21] For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.
