OPENING DECLARATION

Psalms 86:8-10, 12-13a

There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours. All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name. For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God. I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever. For great is your steadfast love toward me."

"Greater" ~ MercyMe

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Host :: Lord, you have loved us with a mighty love. For we know that "there is no greater love than that someone lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:13)

Family :: "How precious is your steadfast love, O God! The children of mankind take refuge in the shadow of your wings." (Psalm 36:7)

Host :: Given the height, width and depth of your love for us in Christ, we are without excuse when we live for ourselves and seek our happiness apart from you.

Family :: Forgive us Lord Jesus, when we, in any way, live for ourselves. You have created and saved us to live for you! "For (we) have died, and (our) life is hidden with Christ in God." (Colossians 3:3)

Moment of Silent Prayer

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

1 Peter 2:24

He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.

MESSAGE

2 Corinthians 5:11-21 :: "Church Can Be _____ PURPOSEFUL"

[11] Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. [12] We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. [13] For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. [14] For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; [15] and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. [16] From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. [17] Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. [18] All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; [19] that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. [20] Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. [21] For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.
