John 1:12-13

But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

OPENING DECLARATION

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Host :: Father God, when we come together each week, we do so, literally, as an expression of your family! Not like a family, or play-acting as family, but actually family; congregating and “meeting” to “stir one another up to love and good works.” (Hebrews 10:24)

Family :: “So we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.” (Romans 12:5)

Host :: Help us to see each other not merely as friends or neighbors, but as “brothers and sisters” because, by belief in Jesus, you “have given us the right to become children of God.” (John 1:12)

Family :: Forgive us for when we fail to live as your children or family to one another. Help us to “love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.” (1 John 4:7)

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

Ephesians 2:19-22

So then YOU are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the HOUSEHOLD of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

MESSAGE

2 Corinthians 5:11-21 :: “Church Can Be ____ FAMILY”

[11] Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. [12] We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. [13] For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. [14] For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; [15] and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. [16] From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. [17] Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. [18] All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; [19] that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. [20] Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. [21] For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.
